SUGGESTING VANCE FOR PRESI-DENT.

(From National Economist—National Organ of the Farmer's Alliance.)

Suppose then, that the farmers in the Democratic party were to suggest to the botheads of that party to stop booming CLEVELAND and HILL for the nomination and feel the pulse of the county on SEN-ATOR VANCE for awhile. What a stir it would make! True they might lose a doubtful State, but they would gain half a dozen in the place of it. The reason is plain and simple. VANCE is noted as a plain man of the people, a wise man, a pure man, an honest, able and efficient man. His people love him, and tears of joy will come to the eyes of a North Carolinian every time he hears praises of "OLD ZEB VANCE." Old and young, Republicans and Democrats, rich and poor, black and white, will all alike feel happy and safe when such men are chosen.

THE CHRONICLE WAS RIGHT.

In giving a list of the members-elect of the General Assembly who were instructed to vote for Senator VANCE, the CHRONICLE gave the name of Mr. JOHN A. GREEN, of Harnett, Senator-elect from Harnett and Cumberland.

Some days afterwards we received a letter from a friend in Harnett county, who questioned the statement, from which we make an extract:

In your "State CHRONICLE" of the 15th of November, a news sheet of your valuable publication, you say that Senator Green of Harnett county, is instructed to vote for VANCE as his own successor. I, a subscriber of your most valuable paper, with all due respect to your informant, beg to say that we Alliance men do not so understand it, and if the "instructed" Senators of the other districts are as carelessly or unreligiously reported to you, there is no safety for VANCE.

We had sought to be correct in all the information given in the CHRONICLE in regard to the Senatorial question, and this letter from a friend surprised us.
We knew that he was honest and was merely stating what he understood to be the case. Therefore to get the official expression we addressed a letter to the chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee of Harnett county, and asked him if the Senator and Representative from his county were instructed for Senator. The following is his reply:

LITTLE RIVER ACADEMY, N. C., Dec.
1st, '90. -Replying to yours of 28th November, our Senator, 16th district, and Representative for Harnett, J. A. Green and M. V. Prince, are instructed, and will certainly vote for VANCE. There is no doubt about this.

Yours very truly,
JAS. M. DAVIS,
Chairman Harnett Co. Ex. Com.

The CHRONICLE was right—as usual.

A HIGH COMPLIMENT TO RAL-EIGH.

The Secretary of the Navy has named the new steel cruiser, No. 8, now in course of construction at the Norfolk navy yard, "The Raleigh," in special compliment to the capital city of the Old North State. It is a very graceful tribute to the people of North Carolina, and particularly to the residents of this city. It is proper, as well as customary, in such cases for the people of the city in whose honor a vessel is named to present her, upon her going into commission, with some token worthy as a return for the compliment bestowed. A set of colors, some plate or a library are appropriate. The people of Raleigh will no doubt join heartily in a movement, at the proper time, to give the city's namesake in the splendid new steel fleet of their country a fitting gift.

WHO THEN CAN BE SAVED?

Col. Polk said in his message at the National Alliance:

The only men who can secure popular support are those who understand the great economic questions.

These questions are the most difficult and abstruse that any man can consider, and we know few men in the State who really understand the financial questions.
Our people are becoming students upon finance, but as yet few of us know more than Senator VANCE facetiously remarked many years ago:

The only thing about finance that I thoroughly understand is that it takes two better names than mine to get money out of a bank.

THE GOSPEL TRUTH.

Referring to SENATOR VANCE, the National Economist said last summer:

Old and young, Republicans and Democrats, rich and poor, black and white, will all alike feel happy and safe when such men are chosen.

TO PATRIOTIC ALLIANCEMEN.

We publish to day an appeal "To Patriotic Alliancemen" from the pen of Dr. R. L. BRALL and other leading Alliancemen of Caldwell county. Attention is called to some of the perils which confront the usefulness and harmony of the Alliance. It is a document worthy of the consideration of every member of the Alliance. The protest against advice to members of the Legislature to violate their sacred pledges is timely and wise. No honorable man will be false to his pledge made in the convention that nominated him, or made on the stump. If he had taken any obligations in the Alliance or any other secret order that would prevent his carrying out his public pledges, it was his duty then and there to state that such was the case. Failing to do so, he is bound by every instinct of honor to be true to his pledge given to the people, and if he should betray it he would be guilty of an infamous crime, and would forfeit the respect and confidence of all honorable men. There is not a man of them that would do this. We know most of them and they are honorable and trustworthy. They "tote their own skillet," and are not to be influenced by any individual of less importance than angel 'Gabriel.'

VANCE HAS NOT CHANGED.

The National Economist (the National organ of the Farmers' Alliance) spoke truly in the Spring or Summer when it said:

"VANCE is noted as

1. A plain man of the people;
2. A wise man;
3. A pure man;
4. An honest, able and efficient man."

"NOBLE SERVICE,"

(Clinton Caucasian.)

The press of State have not yet stopped complimenting the STATE CHRONICLE for the noble service rendered in the late campaign in the interest of good government. One thing is certain, none has more right to feel gratified over the splendid victory in this State, and especially in Wake county, than JOE DAN-IELS, the able and progressive editor.

ON OUR TABLE.

"Books, we know,
Are a substantial world, both pure and good:
Round these, with tendrils strong as flesh and blood Our pastime and our happiness will grow."

A LITTLE LEAVEN, a missionary story by Elizabeth E. Holding, published by Hunt & Eaton, New York.

This is one of the most interesting and inspiring missionary stories that it has been our pleasure to read. It gives an account of the career of the two young ladies who were looking for their missions in life. One went to a training school to prepare for work in a foreign mission field, and the other found her mission in the duties of home. It is calculated to inspire girls and young women with a desire to free themselves from the inanities and conventionalities which hamper their lives and to give them nobler and higher aspirations to right living.

ELSIE YACHTING WITH THE RAYMONDS,
by Martha Finley. Published by Dodd, Mead & Coy, New York.

The author of this book has a wide reputation as a writer of books for children, and her books, "The Elsie Series" and "Elsie With the Raymonds" are all noted books among young people.
"Elsie YacHTing With the Raymonds" is easily one of her best, and is a charming and fascinating story.

A Real Robinson Crusoe. Edited by J.
A. Wilkinson. 12mo. $1.35. Boston: D.
Lothrop Co.

This is a novel of thrilling interest from the opening page until "the end" comes to interrupt a pleasant dream.
The old adage, "truth is stranger than fiction" was never more strikingly exemplified than in the story which in this book Mr. Wilkinson has made public.

"A Real Robinson Crusoe" is a strange and moving tale. The circumstances under which it has been given to the world are of themselves singularly dramatic, and the story itself as taken down by Mr. Wilkinson from the lips of the old survivor is so realistic, so startling, and withal so simple, the reader would often feel inclined to doubt its actualities, were it not for the solemn assurance of truth that goes with the tale. It is, in brief, the story of the experiences of a party of six castaways —four men and two women on a South Pacific Island. Of the six, five were simply aristocratic donothings. One alone had brains, cleverness, ingenuity and aptitude. The story of what he accomplished with only an axe as his aid is simply marvelous and is the best possible commentary on the value of the gospel of work.

That the real Robinson Crusoe out did the Crusoe of fiction in pluck, determination, persistence and results, few readers of his story will question, while the final catastrophe and the one upon which the whole story of remarkable experiences hinges, leaves the reader the wondering yet sympathizing partisan of the poor fellow who after all his toil and trials was but the victim of circumstances. The story is vouched for as true in every particular and it will be read with the most intense interest by both old and young.

THE OLD STORY.

It Can Never Grow Old and Always Warms The Heart.

(Bill Fife at Morganton.)

"I was known to the boys on the road, with whom I traveled, as a good story teller, and when the day's work was over and we gathered around the blazing fire at night they would always call on me for the latest story. A week or two after I was converted I was thrown with four of the boys, my old friends, on the train, and they said, 'Give us the latest story, Bill.' And then I silently asked God for strength, and I told the boys a new story. I told them the story of the man, Christ Jesus. How he had died to save me and to save them, and how he had pardoned my sins, and how he would pardon their sins if they came in faith to him, and there, as the train speeded on in the darkness, we knelt and prayed and wept together, and blessed be God, two of those souls were converted to Christ."

TO PATRIOTIC ALLIANCEMEN.

Defending the Alliance Against Political Tricksters.

(Lenoir Topic.)

LENOIR, N. C., Nov. 24, '90.

To my Alliance Brethren of North Carolina:

I was among the first to join the Alliance in Caldwell county. Before I joined I was assured that nothing was secret, except the signs and passwords, which were necessary to protect us from impsters.

When I was installed, I was solemnly assured that there was nothing to "conflict with my political or religious views."

As far as interference was concerned my religion and my politics were placed on the same plane, one was as sacred as the other.

I read the constitution of the order, and found no hint in it that it was ever to be made a political machine. On the contrary its labors were to be "in a strictly non partisan spirit."

It is a benevolent Protective Association to assist each other in trouble.
"And to secure entire harmony and good will among all mankind, and brotherly love among ourselves."

These are the great objects of the order, and no one can deny that they are praise worthy.

But our constitution has been violated, and our principles trampled upon, and as a consequence what do we see?

Instead of brotherly love among ourselves, there is a discord; instead of securing entire harmony and good will with our neighbors and other classes, the seeds of suspicion, jealousy, and even hatred are sown; political tests are set up and every one in or out of the order compelled to submit to them on pain of political destruction and if any one refuses to bow down to those idols, no matter what his ability, experience and faithful devotion to the best interests of the farmer, and all classes, he is denounced as unworthy of confidence; office-seekers seeing how the Order is being used as a political machine give up, for the time, their legitimate callings and force themselves in, contrary to the letter and spirit of the constitution; the freedom of the press is threatened if it presumes to criticize those in authority threatened with the boycott, a copy of the odious "ban of the empire" used by despots in the dark ages.

Freedom of thought and freedom of speech are threatened with the penalty of being "kicked out of the order."

In addition to all this, there is evidence, amounting almost to a certainty, that an effort is being made through the /Alliances to induce or compel the members-elect to the Legislature to violate their solemn pledges to the conventions that nominated them, and thus trample on their honor, and betray the people, both in and out of the order, who elected them.

This is the condition that confronts us. And now what will the conservative members of the Alliance do! Shall we call a halt and demand a return to the constitution and a cessation of this constant interference without political convictions? Or shall we remain silent and see our order drift to destruction?

This will be the inevitable result if we do not come together and enter a determined protest. Good men who are out will not join us, and all classes will band against us. But what can we do?

For one, I propose to stand by the constitution of our order, and offer this suggestion to my conservative brethren throughout the State, and appeal to them to come together and let themselves be heard and felt.

Let us in our sub-Alliances, when they meet in December, and in our county Alliances, when they meet in January, resolve that we will not permit any interference, from any quarter, with our political rights and convictions, and we advise and counsel the members-elect to the Legislature to stand upon their constitutional rights and upon their honor, and to keep sacred the pledges made to the conventions that nominated them, and to the people who elected them.
And we furthermore condemn the "boycott" in every form.

When you have passed some such resolutions forward then to your Representatives and Senators in the Legislature, and have them published in your Alliance and State papers.

I would advise every Alliance man, whether a delegate or not, to attend the county Alliance and if it declines to adopt some such resolution, let them immediately organize as a Democratic meeting and pass the resolutions as Democratic Alliancemen.

I believe this course is for the good of our order.

I know it is in harmony with the spirit of our fundamental institutes, which guarantee a free speech and a free pass, and with our statute law, which forbids secret political societies as hostile to the genius of liberty.

I invite suggestions from my conservative countrymen, and ask the State papers to publish this appeal.

R. L. BRALL

We approve of the above resolutions, and ask our conservative brethren to unite with us and adopt them.

THE SOUTH FOR HILL.

(Cor. of the New York World.)

ASHEBORO, N. C., Nov. 30. -The entire South would be glad to put the seal of approbation on the action of the Legislature of New York in making David B. Hill the successor of Senator Everts.

No man stands out more conspicuously before the American people to-day than Gov. Hill, and unquestionably a greater statesman, a wiser and more distinguished politician has not been produced in this country since the days of Thomas Jefferson. He has greatly endeared himself to the people of the South in overthrowing the strongholds of Republicanism in the McKinley district, and having ridden them of their most tireless enemy, whose piece of vicious and unnecessary legislation at the last sitting of Congress has already given the death-blow to some of our most prominent industries, and nothing would give them greater gratification than to see him numbered among those who compose the greatest deliberative body on the globe, where his eminent abilities would be of more timely service to them.

A RE-APPROPRIATION BILL.

It is Probable the Reappropriation of the House Will be Enlarged.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3. -Unless the membership of the House is increased by the forthcoming Reappropriation bill, members from the States will legislate themselves out of office by voting for it.
The chances, therefore, are that the membership of the House will be enlarged. The number of members in the present House is 332.

In the House Mr. Frank, of Missouri, introduced for reference a bill making an apportionment of the Representatives in Congress under the eleventh census.
It provides that after the 31 of March, 1893, the House of Representatives shall be composed of 356 members, to be apportioned among the several States as follows:

Alabama, 9; Arkansas, 6; California, 7; Colorado, 2; Connecticut, 4; Delaware, 1; Florida, 2; Georgia, 11; Idaho, 1; Illinois, 22; Indiana, 13; Iowa, 11; Kansas, 8; Kentucky, 11; Louisiana, 6; Maine, 4; Maryland, 6; Massachusetts, 13; Michigan, 12; Minnesota, 7; Mississippi, 7; Missouri, 15; Montana, 1; Nebraska, 6; Nevada, 1; New Hampshire, 2; New Jersey, 8; New York, 34; North Carolina, 9; North Dakota, 1; Ohio, 21; Oregon, 2; Pennsylvania, 30; Rhode Island, 2; South Carolina, 7; South Dak-

Black Goods Department.

This season allows to the wearer of Black Goods more different textures than any previous year, and very well so, because those who wear black like to have a variety to buy from as well as those who wear colors. The attractions of our Black Goods Department are not confined to extreme novelties, notably, shaggy, long-haired styles, but embrace all the new weaves in plainer materials, as well as the most staple fabrics.

The rougher goods, which have been most popular so far this season, are the

CAMEL'S HAIR VIGNONES,
CAMEL'S HAIR STRIPES,
CAMEL'S HAIR PLAIDS,
CHEVIOTS,

In wide and narrow wales.

BOUCLES,

BOURETTE EFFECTS, &C.

In the plainer materials and staple fabrics our greatest care is to secure the best of quality and perfection of finish, and we unhesitatingly recommend our line of these goods as being the best to be had.

USE

King's Royal Germetour

It is one of the best remedies ever offered.
People throughout this and many other States are calling for and using Germetour. Thousands testify to the merits of and the good it has done those who have used it. It will prevent and cure diseases. It strengthens and builds up the system in the old as well as in the young.
What some who have used Germetour say of it:

Mrs. Jno. H. Bell says a long and painful illness in the spring left her nervous system completely prostrated; her digestion out of order. The use of three bottles of Royal Germetour regulated digestion, gave a splendid appetite and gained ten pounds in flesh.

Mrs. W. E. Kings: "I had been a great sufferer from Dyspepsia and Indigestion.
I took Royal Germetour and it relieved me in a short while."

Rev. J. J. Hall: "I have used Royal Germetour in my family and believe it to be a valuable medicine."

Mrs. N. H. Blackwood, Chapel Hill, N.
C.: "I have been troubled with Rheumatism and Dyspepsia nearly thirty years; have tried many remedies, with only temporary relief. I began using Germetour; have used five bottles, and I now feel that I am permanently cured; haven't suffered from either trouble since I began using Germetour."

R. Judson Buffalo: "I have been using Royal Germetour in my family with great satisfaction. Our babe, while teething, would often have high fevers and look as if it would have spasms. We began giving it Germetour, and have had no trouble since. My wife also suffered from a nervous trouble and has experienced very great relief from the Germetour she took."
Every family should have a bottle of Royal Germetour in their homes. Try it.
